

Lucinda Vette is a mediator, and licensed attorney in WI and AZ. She practiced law for ten years, forging a specialty in guiding people through high conflict family law matters. She has had a lifelong passion for horses. She completed an equine assisted learning apprenticeship program in 2013, and an additional two year hands-on intensive in the field with Eponaquest founder, Linda Kohanov. She is now a certified Advanced Eponaquest Instructor, and a Master Medicine Horse Way Instructor. She is the Founder and Director of Red Horse EQ Equine Facilitated Learning in Amado, AZ, with a focus on well-being for attorneys and everyday people facing high conflict life-changing events.