

Save the Date
Friday, June 8, 2018

CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE HEALTH CARE IN IOWA 2018

UI COLLEGE OF PUBLIC HEALTH BUILDING | 145 NORTH RIVERSIDE DRIVE | IOWA CITY, IOWA

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Theodore Cicero, PhD

John P. Feighner Professor of Psychiatry
Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis

“Shifting Patterns of Prescription Opioid Misuse and the Transition to Heroin”

Michele Devlin, DrPH

Professor, Division of Health
Promotion and Education
Executive Director, Iowa Center on Health Disparities
Executive Director and Founder
Global Health Corps
University of Northern Iowa

“Changing Demographic of Iowa and the Impact on Health Care” (Keynote title for co-keynote presentation of Michele Devlin and Mark Grey)

Mark Grey, PhD

Professor of Anthropology
Director, Iowa Center for Immigrant Leadership and Integration
University of Northern Iowa

Polly Olsen

Tribal Liaison
Burke Museum, Washington
State Museum of Natural History and Culture
University of Washington in Seattle

“Culturally Inclusive Care for Native Americans”

TOPICS

- Changing Demographics in the State of Iowa
- Culturally Inclusive Care for Native Americans
- Shifting Patterns of Prescription Opioid Misuse and the Transition to Heroin
- Addressing Barriers Facing Under-served Communities in the Health Care System
- Culturally Inclusive Care for Incarcerated Populations
- Augmentative Communications with Patients

ACTIVITIES

- Invited keynotes
- Patient/provider panels
- Multiple workshops
- On-site breakfast and lunch provided

For additional information: 319-335-8599 or visit us at medicine.uiowa.edu/cme

PROVIDED BY:

University of Iowa Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine, Office of Cultural Affairs and Diversity Initiatives

This live activity has been approved for continuing education credit.

The University of Iowa Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

